TEXAS FARMERS' MARKET TO INTRODUCE WEDNESDAY EVENING MUELLER MARKET

Beginning in May, Farmers' Market Will Expand to Include Weeknight Market

AUSTIN, Texas – Feb. 28, 2018 – Austinites can look forward to getting their fresh produce and other local or handmade items more often, as the Texas Farmers' Market \(TFM\) will launch a weekday market in Mueller starting in May. Due to high demand, TFM is expanding to provide a convenient opportunity for those who live, work and play in East Austin to purchase a wide selection of local fare. The market will be held on Wednesday evenings from 5 to 8 p.m. in Mueller's Browning Hangar, rain or shine. It will be the only weeknight market within the City of Austin.

More than 40 local vendors are confirmed to join the Wednesday market, many of whom will also showcase their products at the popular Sunday market. In addition to the local vendors, TFM brings a wide selection of family-friendly activities, ranging from live music to petting zoos to sample-the-market tables. The market is also a producer-only market, meaning all farms and ranches are inspected regularly to ensure the quality of products meet the standards that are being portrayed.

"Not only does the market carry a variety of unique homemade products for purchase, but the bounty of locally grown, seasonal fruits, vegetables, sustainably-raised meats and gulf sea food is constantly changing, so there is always something new to try," said Kate Payne, executive director of the Texas Farmers' Market. "We're really looking forward to providing the community a mid-week opportunity to buy locally-grown food and providing them with a full farmers' market experience."

Partnering with the Sustainable Food Center, the Mueller Farmers' Market also accepts SNAP Lonestar dollars, and $1 is worth $2 for these benefits on fresh fruits and vegetables for up to $30 doubled. For those venturing from outside of Mueller, plenty of parking is available along designated streets and in the McBee Garage, which is $1 per hour and less than a five-minute walk away. Additionally, for those who wish to utilize public transportation, the market is served by a nearby Capital Metro bus stop for routes 37 and 350.

"We are excited to add a Wednesday Mueller Farmers' Market with the successful Sunday market. Now Austinites will have more opportunities to buy local, fresh produce," said Jessica Reynolds, Director of Marketing, Catellus Development Corporation. "Plus, it offers expanded shopping opportunities in Aldrich Street." Aldrich Street is Mueller's dining and entertainment district, home to the Thinkery, several local businesses, multi-family communities, Lake Park and Mueller's welcome center.

About Texas Farmers' Market: Texas Farmers' Markets (TFM) at Lakeline and Mueller are year-round, rain-or-shine, producer only markets organized under F2M Texas, a 501(c)4 non-profit corporation centered around hosting and educating Central Texas producers and consumers to grow a sustainable food system. TFM at Lakeline happens every Saturday from 9a-1p in the Lakeline Mall parking lot (between Sears and Dillards). TFM at Mueller happens every Sunday from 10a-2p under or beside the Browning Hangar next to Mueller Central.
